

Bettle Haller

Bettle Haller

Representational oil painter of ranch and pioneer life, born in Austin, Texas in 1946 and living in Amarillo, Texas. In 1969, Bettle graduated from Texas Tech with a Bachelor of Advertising Arts degree. She was invited to be in the OS Ranch, Nebraskaland Days, and Western Heritage in Colorado shows. Galleries representing her are Settling Sun and The Country Framer.

#17 Lufkin City Hall – “Long Day Ahead”. Oil painting on canvas. Portrait of a cowboy carrying a saddle, rope and blanket. Full-length. Signed